Discussion Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's message and to prepare you for participation in one of our small group studies. If you need more information about when and where CARE groups are meeting this week see the display in the lobby .

1. It is interesting to note the impact that the prayers of God's people have in the playing out of end-time events (cf. Rev.8:3). How does this observation affect your feelings about prayer?

What kind of really big and important things do you think you should be praying about? (Be specific.)

2. How would you describe the state of your prayer life?

What kinds of habits and disciplines in this area do you think would help you to become be the man or woman of prayer that you believe God would want you to be?

3. It isn't unusual for someone not well acquainted with the God of the Bible to read passages like Revelation 8 & 9 and conclude that God is an ogre who unnecessarily inflicts pain on people. How would you respond to such an accusation?

How does your study in Revelation help you to understand these actions of God to be just?

4. Read Revelation 9:20-21. How do these comments affect your understanding of God's judgment?

How do the statements of Revelation 9:20-21 affect your understanding of people in general?

How do the statements of Revelation 9:20-21 affect your understanding of salvation?
