The Big Questions

So What's Your Question?

part 6

Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's message. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others. This can take place with friends, your family, accountability partners, or ministry groups within the church. For more information about groups at PCC that use these questions as the basis for their weekly discussion, please call the church office at (949) 489-2600.

1. How would you summarize the importance of having reasonable answers to the questions that confront your faith?
2. What questions have you had about God, Christianity or the Bible that have been satisfactorily answered in this Big Questions teaching series?
3. What questions remain in your mind that you believe could be answered with more research?

How important are these questions to you? In other words, what impact or influence do these unanswered questions have on your pursuit of Christ?

What resources will you utilize in seeking answers to these questions?

4. Who do you know that might find needed answers about Christianity by spending time talking with you? How and when will you offer to be a resource?

PCC is reading through the Bible in a year! Here is this week's schedule.
