Understanding the Battle

Colossians 1:9-10a

⁹ For this reason,
since the day we
heard about you,
we have not stopped praying for you and asking God
to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom
and understanding.
¹⁰ And we pray this
in order that you may live a life
worthy of the Lord
and may please him
in every way (NIV)

Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's message. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others. This can take place with friends, your family, accountability partners, or ministry groups within the church

1. Assess your prayer life. What deficiencies come to mind (especially in light of this weekend's message)?

Do you have a written list of people for whom you pray? If not, make one that you can keep handy. If you already have one, how often do you use it? How could you make a prayer list a more frequently used tool?

2. Write down the names of three or four spiritually healthy Christians.

What are some of the unique demands, challenges and temptations that these strong Christians face?

If the healthy Christians you listed above are not on your prayer list, add them. Write out a commitment that expresses your intention to pray for them more often.

3. At what times during your daily schedule do you plan to pray for other Christians?

4. What percentage of your prayer life would you say is spent asking God to attend to the physical or temporal needs of the people for whom you pray? What will you do to remember to allot more time to praying for the spiritual life of the people for whom you pray?

5. Write a note to one or two of the people on your prayer list to let them know that you are praying for them – make sure you tell them you are praying that they become even more godly. Who will you write?
