The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

The Message of the Three Angels

1)

Revelation 14:6 Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. 7 And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

2)

8 Another angel, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who made all nations drink the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality."

3)

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he also will drink the wine of God's wrath, poured full strength into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name." 12 Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

Ellen G. White

- Ellen Harmon born a Twin 1827 in Maine
- Raised a Methodist
- Premillennialism on the Rise

Four years previous to this, on my way to school, I had picked up a scrap of paper containing an account of a man in England who was preaching that the earth would be consumed in about thirty years from that time. I took this paper home and read it to the family. In contemplating the event predicted, I was seized with terror; the time seemed so short for the conversion and salvation of the world. Such a deep impression was made upon my mind by the little paragraph on the scrap of paper, that I could scarcely sleep for several nights, and prayed continually to be ready when Jesus came.

EGW, The Early Years, 1827-1862 (Vol. 1) (p. 156)

Wings were given me, and an angel attended me from the city to a place that was bright and glorious. The grass of the place was living green, and the birds there warbled a sweet song. The inhabitants of the place were of all sizes; they were noble, majestic, and lovely.

They bore the express image of Jesus, and their countenances beamed with holy joy, expressive of the freedom and happiness of the place. I asked one of them why they were so much more lovely than those on the earth. The reply was, "We have lived in strict obedience to the commandments of God, and have not fallen by disobedience, like those on the earth."

EGW, Early Writings of Ellen G. White (p.40)

Then I was taken to a world which had seven moons. There I saw good old Enoch, who had been translated. On his right arm he bore a glorious palm, and on each leaf was written "Victory." Around his head was a dazzling white wreath, and leaves on the wreath, and in the middle of each leaf was written "Purity"

I begged of my attending angel to let me remain in that place. I could not bear the thought of coming back to this dark world again. Then the angel said, "You must go back, and if you are faithful, you, with the 144,000, shall have the privilege of visiting all the worlds and viewing the handiwork of God."

EGW, Spiritual Gifts (vol.3, p.75)

Every species of animal which God had created were preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood. Since the flood there has been amalgamation of man and beast, as may be seen in the almost endless varieties of species of animals, and in certain races of men.

EGW, Spiritual Gifts (vol.3, p.34)

As Adam came forth from the hand of his Creator, he was of noble height, and of beautiful symmetry. He was more than twice as tall as men now living upon the earth

EGW, Testimonies of the Church (vol.1, p.259)

Said the angel: "Hear, O heavens, the cry of the oppressed, and reward the oppressors double according to their deeds." This nation will yet be humbled into the dust. England is studying whether it is best to take advantage of the present weak condition of our nation. When England does declare war, all nations will have an interest of their own to serve, and there will be general war, general confusion."

EGW, Spiritual Gifts (vol.2, p.208)

I saw that some of those present would be food for worms, some subjects for the seven last plagues, and some would be translated to heaven at the second coming of Christ, without seeing death.

EGW, Ministry of Healing (p.291)

One of fashion's wasteful and mischievous devices is the skirt that sweeps the ground. Uncleanly, uncomfortable, inconvenient, unhealthful—all this and more is true of the trailing skirt.

EGW, Ministry of Healing (p.292)

Another serious evil is the wearing of skirts so that their weight must be sustained by the hips. This heavy weight, pressing upon the internal organs, drags them downward and causes weakness of the stomach and a feeling of lassitude, inclining the wearer to stoop, which further cramps the lungs, making correct breathing more difficult.

- Yet, They Affirm the “Spirit of Prophecy”

When they lost their way, He sent “prophets to the people to bring them back to him.” ... God’s prophets are His messengers, appointed to speak His words. Our human nature made it impossible to for us to see God face-to-face. But just because we have to keep our distance does not mean He must remain silent. Adventists believe prophecies are God’s way of continuing his conversation with us.

- Yet, They Affirm the “Spirit of Prophecy”

it is our belief that the Holy Spirit opened to her mind important events and called her to give certain instructions for those last days. And inasmuch as these instructions, in our understanding, are in harmony with the Word of God, which Word alone is able to make us wise unto salvation, we as a denomination accept them as inspired counsels from the Lord. But we have never equated them with Scripture as some falsely charge.

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Ellen G. White's Own Claims

In ancient times God spoke to men by the mouth of prophets and apostles. In these days He speaks to them by the testimonies of His Spirit. There was never a time when God instructed His people more earnestly than He instructs them now concerning His will and the course that He would have them pursue. But will they profit by His teachings? will they receive His reproofs and heed His warnings? God will accept of no partial obedience Testimonies for the Church. (Vol. 4, pp. 147–148).

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Ellen G. White's Own Claims

Yes, it was a letter, but prompted by the Spirit of God, to bring before your minds things that had been shown me. In these letters which I write, in the testimonies I bear, I am presenting to you that which the Lord has presented to me. I do not write one article in the paper, expressing merely my own ideas. They are what God has opened before me in vision—the precious rays of light shining from the throne....

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Ellen G. White's Own Claims

What voice will you acknowledge as the voice of God? What power has the Lord in reserve to correct your errors and show you your course as it is? What power to work in the church? If you refuse to believe until every shadow of uncertainty and every possibility of doubt is removed, you will never believe.

E.G. White, Selected Messages, Book 1 (pp. 27–28).

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Defenders Claim Prophecy with “Errors”

Martin Weber, SDA for Me: Doctrinal Essays & Interactions. (2013)

Likewise with Ellen White. She did not always enjoy a mature understanding of truth. In fact, according to Robert Olson of the White Estate she “did not at first understand the meaning of the ‘open door’ in her February, 1845, vision.” She had previously mistaken her December, 1844, vision: “That seventeen year old Ellen should misinterpret one of her visions should elicit no surprise when one remembers that ... at one time the apostle Peter mistakenly believed in a shut door.

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Defenders Claim Prophecy with “Errors”

Olson continues: “The 1846 and 1847 printings of Ellen White’s first vision included the sentence in the box above [“It was just as impossible for them to get on the path again and go to the City, as all the wicked world which God had rejected.”]. The 1851 printing of the same vision omitted the sentence. Why was it omitted? Ellen White no doubt realized that the passage had been misunderstood by some of her readers, as well as by herself.”

Martin Weber, SDA for Me: Doctrinal Essays & Interactions. (2013)

The Role of Ellen G. White's Writings

- Defenders Equate Errors to Biblical Prophets

Is it true that genuine prophets never suffer from theological error? Jesus didn't think so. Exhibit A is John the Baptist. That desert prophet who announced the coming Messiah suffered from serious theological error. When people asked him how to be saved, he put them on a works trip. The apostle Paul even had to rebaptize converts confused by his misunderstanding of the Gospel.

THE FOLLY OF FALLIBLE PROPHETS

Dry wells, fruitless trees, raging waves, wandering stars, brute beasts, hideous stains, vomit-eating dogs, mud-loving pigs, and ravenous wolves—that is how the Bible describes false prophets (cf. 2 Peter 2; Jude). The New Testament reserves its harshest words of condemnation for those who would falsely claim to speak revelation from God. And what the Bible condemns we must also condemn—doing so with equal vigor and force. But apply those same epithets to today’s false teachers, and you’re likely to be labeled as uncharitable or even unchristian. The ecumenical spirit of the age shrinks back in cowardice from the clear denunciation of error, even when Scripture explicitly warrants it.

The growth of the Charismatic Movement has compounded the problem, encouraging and giving a platform to all kinds of people who make ridiculous extrabiblical (and often grossly unbiblical) utterances in the name of the Holy Spirit. Faithful Christians desperately need to wake up and speak out against the free flow of false prophecies that has come into the church in the wake of the Charismatic Movement.

The New Testament repeatedly warns that the false prophets who are most dangerous are the wolves who come in sheep’s clothing or disguise themselves as angels of light in order to permeate their lies. They would never overtly deny Christ or oppose the Holy Spirit. Rather, they come in Christ’s name and claim the Holy Spirit’s authority. They infiltrate the church by pretense and subterfuge. This is where they do their real damage.

Speaking of the end of the age, the Lord Jesus explained, “Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. . . . For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect” (Matt. 24:11, 24). The apostle Paul similarly warned the Ephesian elders, “Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock. . . . For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves” (Acts 20:28–30). Peter, too, acknowledged that these counterfeits are

Message of the Three Angels

- Revelation 14:6-12

Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water." Another angel, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who made all nations drink the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality." And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, he also will drink the wine of God's wrath, poured full strength into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name." Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

Message of the Three Angels

Message of the Three Angels

1) “Judgment” = The “Investigative Judgment” of 1844

- Pre-Advent Return of Christ to Judge Professing Christians
- Sins Recorded in Heavenly (invisible) Sanctuary
- Jesus is Trying Cases of His People (based on Commands)
- Sanctuary is Being “Cleansed” of our Sins
- Sins are Placed on Satan as the Scapegoat

2) “Babylon” = Apostate Church

- Churches Rejecting the 1844 Return
- Leave Non-Adventist Churches to Join Remnant
- SDA Views Have Soften Some (saved in Babylon)

Message of the Three Angels

3) “Mark of the Beast” = Sunday Worship

- Saturday Sabbath is the Test of Loyalty to Christ
- Pagan Sunday Worship Imposed by Constantine in 321
- If Warned of This Pagan Observance & You Don't Repent
Then you Will Receive the Mark of the Beast
(EGW, The Last Days, p.226)
- Those Keeping Saturday Sabbath Receive
“The Seal of God” (Rev.14:1; 9:4)

Message of the Three Angels

3) “Mark of the Beast” = Sunday Worship

As the Sabbath has become the special point of controversy throughout Christendom, and religious and secular authorities have combined to enforce the observance of the Sunday, the persistent refusal of a small minority to yield to the popular demand, will make them objects of universal execration.

Message of the Three Angels

3) “Mark of the Beast” = Sunday Worship

It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the State, ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness.

Message of the Three Angels

3) “Mark of the Beast” = Sunday Worship

*This argument will appear conclusive;
and a decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath
of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment,*

Message of the Three Angels

3) “Mark of the Beast” = Sunday Worship

and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death.

Romanism in the Old World, and apostate Protestantism in the New, will pursue a similar course toward those who honor all the divine precepts.
